

Waymart Bicentennial Committee reorganizes

A reorganization meeting of the Waymart Area Bicentennial Committee was held on Thursday, February 17, to discuss dispersal of monies earned during the 1976 celebration.

Members present, Barbara Boguski, Sandra Boguski, Joseph Davitt, Mary Lou Ellsworth, Barbara Holmes, Frank Kacer and Jane Varcoe, agreed that monies would be spent toward preservation of the D&H Gravity Depot.

The 108-year-old building, located on South Street in Waymart, is the only remaining D&H Gravity Railroad Depot and has been listed on the National Register of Historic Places since September 1978.

Efforts will now be made toward the first major preservation problem, that of getting the building out of the mud and on a firm foundation.

The committee welcomes all assistance and suggestions. Interested persons please attend the next meeting to be held at the home of Jane Varcoe on Thursday, March 10, at 7:30 p.m.
